SHOW DETAILS

The interview will be roughly 90 minutes to capture the entire conversation and for editing purposes. It is likely that the recorded & published version of the episode will be between 25-45 minutes.

There is a virtual option for recording if the guest speaker prefers. However, if they are located In the Twin Cities, we would like to record in person.

All interviews will be video recorded and published, with options for the audience to watch on YouTube or on one of the major podcast platforms.

One of the Envision Greatness team members will reach out to you via email with proposed interview questions to review ahead of time and the Prep Show Kit Details.

Please note, the conversation is meant to be fun, educational and thought-provoking, therefore, it is highly likely to go off script at times to maintain a natural flow of the show.
